In my post I will share links to videos by Chris Clarke, Greg Childs, and Benedict Wong, and I hope to help Lululemon's teaching community to network and help inspire each other! Monday, June 19, 2013 On Monday I was very honored and humbled to watch Greg Childs speak at the Oak Grove School, and, through his speaking, enjoy the distinction of visiting three high schools within a week. It's an incredibly complex project, which required significant planning and communication, and I found myself totally inspired by Greg's energy and leadership, and by the way that the Oak Grove School and community were able to connect this project and program. I hope that the videos shown above help to bring the magic and power of the children of Oak Grove to the Lululemon brand's teaching community. I hope you enjoy watching and sharing the videos as much as I did!Top Four Ways to Avoid Antibiotic Resistance Antibiotic resistance is on the rise. That's not a hyperbole – the New England Journal of Medicine reported that resistance to antibiotics is growing at an alarming rate. While bacteria are evolving and acquiring antibiotic resistance genes, we can also take direct actions to control the
